Many Friends in Foreign Lands Gained by Members of L. M. Amateur Radio Club

Communication with Five Continents and Thirty Countries, Reception of Byrd's Messages Among Its Achievement.

Direct radio communication with several continents may seem like a fabulous dream to most people, but it is an every-day reality with the members of the Lower Merion Amateur Radio Club.

Organized about two years ago to further the art of short wave communication and promotion of friendships among amateurs, the club is composed of some half dozen young men, most of them residents of Narberth.

Its president is Edwin A. Speakman, of 234 Hampden Avenue, Narberth, who graduates from Haverford College next week. His station call is W3AUR. Jordan H. Gaul, of 10 Iona Avenue, Narberth, is secretary-treasurer, his call being W3IM. The other members and their station calls are: Richard L. Timm, W3AUQ; James G. Roberts, South Narberth Avenue, W3UH; Harlan Shaw, 114 Avon Road, Narberth, W3ANG; James Auberger, of Meadow Lane, Merion, W3AAN; J. A. Bailey, Jr., of Narberth; Sidney E. Smith, of Merion, and Louis P. Tabor, of Iona Avenue, Narberth, an M. I. T. graduate who acts as adviser to the club. Roberts, Shaw and Auberger are all Lower Merion High School students.

The possibilities of amateur radio communication may be indicated by the fact that Admiral Byrd's radio messages from Antarctica on his trip to the South Pole were received by this group of amateurs. These messages, as Edwin Speakman pointed out, were laboriously transmitted by Morse code to the New York Times station in New York City. Since they were copyrighted by The Times no one else could publish them but there was no restriction upon receiving them over the air.

"Many of the stories," Speakman said, "were not published for several days after their reception at The Times station. Others were published a few hours later. On one occasion a story was not published until ten days after I heard it. So if we felt ambitious and it was difficult to take down since it was sent at the rate of 35 words per minute, requiring close attention, we could read about Byrd's adventures often several days before the stories appeared in the New York Times."

One of the nice things about amateur radio work is the number of friends one makes in all parts of the world. The absorption in the hobby

Approve Recreation Plan

At the regular quarterly meeting of the Narberth Recreation Board on Wednesday evening, the program for the summer submitted by Allan B. Weatherill, director of the Playgrounds, was approved.

The program, which will be printed in full in next week's issue of "Our Town," calls for the employment of an additional man so that the playgrounds may be operated continuously from 9.30 till dusk.

The Board hopes to provide a wading pool during the summer as an additional feature of the Community Playgrounds equipment.

OUTFIELDERS INJURED

By DAVE CASEY

Memorial Day of 1931 was certainly not a memorable one to those who are concerned about the prestige of the Narberth Baseball Club. The hot and sultry weather, much better suited for baseball than the chill atmosphere of the preceding Saturday, totally failed to extract any effective hitting from the bats of Manager Davis' warriors, and consequently the defending champions were easily beaten in both games, Bryn Mawr taking the morning contest, 4-0, and Oakmont winning its initial victory in the league in the afternoon by a score of 10-8.

In the morning game Dick Kent pitched a creditable game for the Borough boys and would have held the invaders to a pair of runs except for a couple of mental lapses on the part of Narberth's infield, each of which gave the visitors a run. However, Kent's work was more than matched by the super twirling exhibition of Whitey Moleskie, a Villanova College student, who shut out the Narberth clan with two hits, one an infield roller, which the fleet Harry Francis beat out, and the other a vicious drive from the bat of Harry King that Bob Doyle failed to hold. Indeed, the peerless Whitey, by some post game score book doctoring, was credited with a no-hit game in

Mercury Hits 90

The highest temperature since September 2, 1930, was reached last Saturday when the mercury hit 90 degrees, Co-operative Weather Observer for the Main Line Charles Decker reports. High-low temperatures for the week were as follows: 26th, 76-55; 27th, 79-49; 28th, 86-49; 29th, 89-57; 30th, 90-61; 31st, 82-61; 1st, 66-56. One and two one-hundredths inches of rain fell during the week, all on the first.

Collection Next Week

The first summer collection of rubbish will be made next week. But two collections will be made a month throughout the summer.

Children Hurt in Accident at Meeting House & Montg'ery

Two children suffered cuts from flying glass and adults received bruises in an accident which occurred last Sunday night at 9:30 at the intersection of Montgomery Avenue and Meeting House Lane, Narberth.

Samuel Lazar, of 5315 Wynnefield Avenue, Philadelphia, was proceeding west on Meeting House Lane when he was struck at the intersection by Arturo Volpi, of 229 Hampden Avenue, Narberth, who was going east on the pike. Mr. Volpi's two children, Louis, aged 10, and Irma, aged 7, were cut by glass and taken to the Bryn Mawr Hospital, where they spent the night.

At the hearing before Magistrate Thomas W. Cronin, at Ardmore, Lazar admitted responsibility for the accident. Both drivers were held on their own recognizance for a further hearing on Friday, June 12.

Open Bids Tuesday

Bids for the remodeling of the Narberth Public School will be opened at a special meeting of the Borough School Board on Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Other routine business will be conducted.

Predicting the Weather Is a Function of Charles Decker, Observer for the Main Line

Station at Narberth Has Been in Existence for Thirteen Years; Records Furnished to Philadelphia and Washington.

Mark Twain is supposed to have observed that everyone talks about the weather but no one does anything about it. One man who does more than talk about it, however, is Charles J. A. Decker, who maintains the only official U. S. Weather Bureau Station on the Main Line at his home at 68 Wynnedale Avenue, Narberth.

This station, which has been in operation for thirteen years, furnishes reports to the Philadelphia Weather Bureau and to the Bureau at Washington, D. C., as well as to the local community weekly papers of the Livingston Publishing Company.

Operating a weather bureau is not such a simple matter as one might think. Mr. Decker has in his house and grounds a very complete and interesting set of meteorological instruments of great sensitivity for recording weather conditions.

Merely recording the maximum and minimum temperatures, which is done twice daily, involves consulting the thermometers which are placed in a shaded receptacle on the lawn. These readings have to be taken at the same time every day regardless of rain, snow, hail or other disturbances of the elements.

One of the most interesting of Mr. Decker's instruments is the wind Anemometer, which records the velocity of the wind. This gauge consists of three cup-like iron shells fastened to the weather vane on top of the garage. Wires run to the dial in Mr. Decker's study, where he can read at a glance the speed of the wind. A sudden gust

Narberth Theatre Notes

Will Rogers gives an inimitable performance in the latest version of Mark Twain's "Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," which is at the Narberth Theatre this Friday and Saturday. Very much worth seeing for amusing entertainment.

George Arliss has a modern role, as pleasing as his other screen successes, in "The Millionaire," coming to Narberth the first of next week. On Wednesday and Thursday a musical drama, "Kiss Me Again," based on Victor Herbert's "Mlle. Modiste," will have in its cast Walter Pidgeon, Bernice Claire, June Collyer and Edward Everett Horton.

The end of next week will see (but not hear) Charlie Chaplin in "City Lights" at the Narberth Theatre. Done in his new manner, the great comedian's newest picture is well worth seeing. Pantomime with sound accompaniment.

—At the Egyptian

Josef von Sternberg, who directed "Morocco," and Marlene Dietrich, who starred in it, were aided by Victor McLaglen in making of "Dishonored" an intriguing, thrilling drama of wartime Vienna. Also in the cast are Lew Cody, Gustav von Seyffertitz and Warner Oland. At the Egyptian this weekend, "Dishonored" is unusually highly recommended, and will probably be rated one of the year's best.

A typical William Haines wise-cracking comedy is coming to Cynwyd's playhouse next Wednesday and Thursday. It is "A Tailor Made Man," in its rather amusing "talkie" version.

Too much cannot be said in praise of "The Royal Family of Broadway," to recommend it to Main Line moviegoers. This comedy, which is coming to the Egyptian next week-end, was first seen on the stage as "The Royal Family," and is a diverting take-off on the Barrymores, written by Edna Ferber and George Kaufman. It was a howling success . . . and now Frederic March and Ina Claire head a talented cast in a well-acted cinema version. To quote one critic: "They are a mad, charming, fascinating lot, to whom nothing outside of the theatre matters. They dash up stairs and down, in and out of bedrooms, play scenes from old plays and swear that they will leave the stage for good and then rush madly for the theatre when they realize it is 8 o'clock . . . "The Royal Family of Broadway" is grand fun."

Edna Ferber and George S. Kaufman collaborated in an amusing take-off on a well-known stage family, which they called "The Royal Family." The vivacious and sparkling comedy won critics' acclaim, audiences' applause, and crowded houses.

Now, as Paramount's picture, "The Royal Family of Broadway," it remains deliciously funny. The direction was intelligent, and the cast an unusually capable one, including Ina Claire and Frederic March . . . Don't miss it, at The Egyptian next Friday and Saturday, June 12 and 13.

Week's News of the Main Line Sporting World

Tennis Tournaments Suggested Between Playground and Country Club Players

Summer sports are under way in Narberth at the community playground. In addition to the baseball games on the diamond by Narberth's senior and junior teams, the green-sward is the scene of unsupervised and enjoyable sports by youngsters and grownups, as a preliminary to the school's supervised play, which will begin later.

Play has commenced on the two tennis courts behind the community building, which were officially opened last year. Children play there in daytime, from 9 to 5 o'clock, for 15-minute periods. And adults are keeping the caretaker, Bill Blackledge, busy on evenings and week-ends, when they are allowed 30-minute play periods. Grown-ups are privileged to play week-day evenings until dark, Saturday from 1 P. M. to dark and Sunday from 1 to 7 P. M.

There is talk of running off tournaments at the community courts and the Narberth Country Club pay courts, at Haverford and Montgomery Avenues, and of a tournament between the two. Frank Feise, in charge of the pay courts and miniature golf course, plans to offer prizes for players on his seven clay courts, and Philip A. Livingston, publisher of "Our Town," has consented to offer a prize to the winner of a singles tournament between champion players of the community and pay courts. It will be a fine regulation tennis racquet, or any equivalent prize selected by the winner.

To promote greater fun at the community courts, there is an opportunity for any individual or organization in Narberth to offer a suitable prize to the winners of singles and doubles eliminations in a tournament at the playground, with entries open to any players who regularly use the community courts.

Last year a tournament was held, but many entrants defaulted and interest lagged over a long period. A contest for a limited period early in the summer, and another one in September, would seem desirable and might easily become a matter of community sports benefit. . . . Prizes would help. . . . What is offered? (By T. A. E.)

Narberth Fire Company Downs Ardmore Twice

Dick Blessing's Narberth Fire Co. nine continued their victorious march toward the first half title of the Police-Firemen League when they captured two games from the Ardmore Firemen last week.

The first contest played last Tuesday night at Cynwyd was won in the sixth inning by a home run drive by Ben Yowell, star centrefielder, which drove two of his comrades in ahead of him. Yocum pitched well for the borough firefighters in this game. On the following night the same two teams met at Narberth and again the Ardmoreites were turned back, this time by the score of 2-1 in a well-played game. Both Manager Blessing, for Narberth, and Joe Dougherty, for Ardmore, pitched fine games but an error by Lanser, the Ardmore rightfielder, following singles by Yocum and Cook, allowed Narberth to score two runs. The hitting of Cook and Rubican's flashy fielding were the features of the game.

Lower Merion Topples Abington Tuesday, 8-4

Lower Merion advanced another notch toward a baseball championship Tuesday afternoon at Abington by downing Coach Snodgrass' second placers, 8 to 4. This leaves two games for Bill Anderson's boys and if they can win both of them they will be in first place at the close of the season for the first time since Buck was a young calf.

Herb Thomas, Seaver Rose, "Soup" Campbell, those are the names which lead in the hitting column up at Old York Road. Each of them had two hits which helped "Bink" Odiorne to another victory. The Maroon specialized in two-base hits, five of their 10 bingles being of the two-bagger variety. Rose hit the longest hit of the day, but fast fielding by Abington's left fielder held the man mountain to only two hassocks. Odiorne pitched another heady game, one of those smooth affairs which remind you of the Old Mill Stream in August.

A victory over Upper Darby away today will mean that Lower Merion is on the brink of another 1931 championship in suburban circles. The Old Guard and all the young guards are pulling for just such a result.

L. M. Junior High Wins Suburban Track & Field Meet

Lower Merion Junior High won the Suburban Track and Field Meet held at Upper Darby Junior High School last week for the eighth consecutive year. The victory, the first under Coach Charles "Chuck" Hutton, was won by an overwhelming score.

First places were taken in all but two events. Mike Zengel in the 50, Buck in the 100, Mathes in the 220, Graham in the 440 and 880, Buek in the hurdles, Buek in the shotput, Johnson in the discus, Witte in the pole vault, and the relay team all took first places. Upper Darby took first in the 100-pound relay, a race for eighth graders, first in the broad and high jumps. New records were set in the 440 and 880 by Sam Graham, of Lower Merion, and in the high jump by Handschuk, of Upper Darby. The relay team also set a record for the meet by running it in 1.39 3-5.

Harvey Buek equaled the old record in the hurdles. A final score of 85 was rolled up against 49 by Upper Darby, 29 by Radnor, 24 by Haverford and 8 by West Chester.

'TIME OUT'

By TOMMY MACKLIN

The "Suburbans," to be held at Norristown tomorrow afternoon, will bring to a close the 1931 track season in the suburban high school area. Lower Merion may win this meet, and we think she will, but the members of the squad must rise to great heights in each event to keep other strong schools from "nosing" them out.

Haverford High will give the Maroon the strongest battle probably, while Norristown, Upper Darby and others will cut into the scoring at important points.

Adam has had a successful season with his track squad. Just another one of those Lower Merion style campaigns.

This is really the important meet of the season, however, and the winner will probably be judged the suburban champions. The Maroon holds the district championship, as you know, and is runnerup to the State champions, Altoona High School.

The victory of Bill Anderson's baseball nine at Abington was pleasing to the fans. One or two costly boots by the locals did not hurt the final total, and "Bink" Odiorne breezed through to another win, which put the team in striking distance of a tie for the championship.

If the members of the squad will swallow their Adam's apple this afternoon at Upper Darby, they can beat that gang and come through a winner. Then the only obstacle will be Chester, a team that Lower Merion can always lick.

"Chuck" Hutton's track team at Lower Merion Junior High School finished their season at Upper Darby last Wednesday a week ago by taking first place in the suburban track meet with a score of 87½ points. Harvey Buek, husky upper classman, scored 16 of his team's points.

NEWS SHORTS

A Derby Winner—Miss Miriam E. Maynes, of 224 Upland Road, Merion, was this week announced as winner of a $500 prize in the Irish Hospital Sweepstakes at Dublin. "I'm just going to sit tight until I hear about it officially," said incredulous Miss Maynes, who lives with her mother and sister.

Meet Mrs. Hoover—Five Main Line Girl Scouts shook hands and chatted with the First Lady at Valley Forge last Saturday. They are Eureka Simmons, of Wynnewood Troop, 107; Emma Croasdale, of Cynwyd Troop, 94; Julia Moore, also of Cynwyd Troop 94; Dorothea Bates, of Ardmore Troop 44, and Helen Riggs, Wynnewood, Troop 131.

War Itself Inglorious—So spoke the Rev. Thomas H. Evans, new pastor of the Ardmore Matthew Simpson Methodist Episcopal Church, at the Memorial Day meeting of the Ardmore Rotary Club. Mr. Evans traced the history of the observance of Memorial Day. The meeting also marked the installation of the Rev. Albert C. Kanzinger, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Ardmore, as president of the club.

Commencement Speaker—Dr. Herbert J. Tily, of Cynwyd, addressed the graduating class at the commencement exercises of the Abington Memorial Hospital's Training School for Nurses.

They Went Boom!—A St. Davids youth, Richard Murphy, suffered a broken leg as the result of a 150-foot fall near Greenwich, N. J., by the airplane in which he was a passenger. The pilot, James J. Neely, Jr., of Bala, escaped with a few scratches.

Richer by $10,000—Reginald R. Jacobs, of Avon Road, Haverford, was bequeathed the $10,000 estate of Miss Catherine Meredith Biddle, who died May 17, at her home at 1327 Spruce Street, Philadelphia. The will was executed January 5, 1931.

Police Humor—Police officers get huge enjoyment from practical jokes on their fellows, particularly when they marry. Last Thursday night Officer James Smyth, of Brookhurst Avenue, Narberth, was wed in the Narberth Presbyterian Church. On emerging from the church, he and his bride, the former Miss Laura Templeman, of Forest Avenue, Narberth, took a ride, by request, on the apparatus of the Narberth Fire Company. Then the police officers got in their share of the fun. The couple were transferred from the fire truck to an old one-hoss shay, covered with signs and cow bells, and taken for a three-hour ride through the streets of the Township, ending at the Ardmore station house. After a demonstration by Superintendent C. P. Smith, the young couple were allowed to proceed on their wedding trip.

Self-Appointed Cop—One Herbert McLaughlin, aged 22, of a farm near Valley Forge, constituted himself a traffic cop on the Swedesford Road crossing last Sunday night. One-arm drivers, speeders and the like had a tough time in that vicinity. But along came Chief of Police James Nugent, who by that time had numerous complaints from motorists about a cop who whistled down motorists at the slightest provocation, if any. Chief Nugent took Self-appointed Officer McLaughlin in tow and Squire Logan decided to hold him in $500 bail.

Diploma Dispenser—Samuel M. Vauclain, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Bryn Mawr Hospital as well as chairman of the Board of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, presented 23 diplomas to graduates of the Bryn Mawr Hospital Training School for Nurses at the annual commencement exercises on Wednesday.

Attention, Welshmen! Plans for welcoming Dr. B. B. Thomas, warden of Harlech College, Wales, upon his visit to Philadelphia on July 14th, were arranged at a meeting of the 202-year-old Welsh Society of Philadelphia, which numbers some Main Line residents in its membership. Dr. Thomas will speak at the Welsh Presbyterian Church in the city.

A Musical Opportunity

Those of us Main Liners who plan to spend all or most of the summer at home (and the Main Line is an ideal place to spend a summer at home) have a splendid opportunity to hear the highest type of music. Season tickets for the summer concerts at Robin Hood Dell are now on sale.

The series of concerts last summer, regarded by many as an experiment, were a gratifying success. A splendid orchestra shell was built in this natural amphitheatre; large audiences attended every concert, and were rewarded by the world's finest musical compositions, played by a brilliant group of musicians under the baton of first-rate conductors.

And the Dell, located just the other side of the Strawberry Mansion bridge, is more accessible to Main Liners than to many living in Philadelphia. There is no pleasanter spot to spend a summer evening, to say nothing of the opportunity of keeping up with our Beethoven and Wagner, or perhaps Stravinski and Varese!

The Sixth Month

June is with us—the month of roses, graduates, weddings. With June we have the longest day in the year, a day when the sun himself seems to pause a little in his swift course and give a few minutes more of daylight than on any other day in the year.

The poets have thought highly of this handsome month. James Russell Lowell wanted to know "what is so rare as a day in June?" And up to the present nobody has given an appropriate answer. Lowell insisted that in June, "if ever, come perfect days." And nobody has contradicted him. It certainly seems very true that in no other month, except possibly in October, does the weather seem exactly right, 100 per cent. salubrious.

Of course, it must be admitted that June bugs are not particularly attractive.

A Bad Intersection

With an increasing number of close shaves and accidents to its credit, the intersection of Montgomery Avenue and Meeting House Lane needs the immediate attention of the authorities. Whether the conditions require a clocked light or merely a blinker only a traffic authority can say, but some control must be installed.

At this point Meeting House Lane, a direct road from the Germantown-Chestnut Hill section, comes in from the northeast to intersect the much-travelled Montgomery Pike. Cars coming down the grade beside the Merion Meeting House are supposed to observe a stop sign before joining the Montgomery Avenue traffic, but the nature of the intersection encourages far too many to shoot right out onto the main road.

In general we are of the opinion that the roads are cluttered up with far too many traffic lights. Obscure country highways are possessed of the devices at points where they are not justified. But at the corner in question a traffic count, or a few hours' observation of conditions, would soon show the need of control.

Have You Thought of This?

With the exception of apartment dwellers, nearly every Main Line resident has some sort of a yard, large enough to grow a few flowers. Many, in this generous time of the year, have hundreds of thousands of blooms.

Mass effects in a garden are desirable, but a far better use for flowers can be found by anyone who makes it a practice to pick armfuls in the early morning and distribute them to others who may not have a garden. Not only is there a wonderful opportunity to spread beauty in the city's dark spots through the agencies provided for that purpose, but there are many people in our own territory, sick or discouraged, who would appreciate a few flowers.

Dull offices are brightened by a few flowers, and there are thousands wilting in the gardens. Even now it is not too late to plant various things which will produce a wealth of bloom in the late summer and fall. A ten-cent packet of seeds planted in the earth, now warm and moist, will give plenty of flowers in a very few weeks.

There is nothing more acceptable than a bouquet, and no greater joy than to give flowers to give away!

In the Theater

It is not often that one has the pleasure of reviewing so opulent a dramatic work as was portrayed Tuesday night in the performance of Oscar Wilde's play, "The Importance of Being Ernest," given by the Main Line Repertory Theatre at the Woman's Club of Bala-Cynwyd.

We need hardly concern ourselves with the genius of Wilde in building his plays. His classic form and rare wit are well known to all intelligent laymen. This sparkling and breezy bit of satire was artistically presented by a well-chosen cast, which showed much ability.

Cecily Cardow was played by Mary Stone, who gave a very charming interpretation of the part. Eleanor Payne, as the Hon. Gwendolen Fairfax, showed her usual skill in handling a difficult role. John Worthing and Algernon Moncrieff, played by John Creighton and Marshall Smith, respectively, were well done, while Lady Bracknell was portrayed effectively by Dorothy Loder. Cynthia Flannery as Miss Prism and Moira Flannery as the maid were also in inimitable form.

This group of players, under the direction of R. Rowland Deardon, 3d, has given the concluding play of the 1930-31 season. They will welcome any comments or suggestions for another season. An organization such as this should have a permanent place in our community and receive its support and encouragement.

Donation Day Luncheon

Attended by 175 Guests

Donation Day for the King's Daughters' Holiday House at Valley Forge was held on Wednesday at the Home for the Aged, on Sabine Avenue, Narberth, when a delicious luncheon was served by the Narberth Circle to 175 guests. Liberal donations of money, clothing, old and new, and groceries were received. Mrs. Fred Derby, president of the King's Daughters of the State; Mrs. Francis E. Baker, treasurer; Miss Edna Super, corresponding secretary, and Miss Edna Walker, recording secretary, as well as other members of the Narberth Circle assisted in preparing and serving the luncheon. After luncheon the guests inspected the home and found it very delightful and homelike, with nice furnishing and hangings and coverings of bright cottons and chintz. Many attractive articles were on sale by the inmates of the home. In one of the rooms was a large glass jug in which there was a complete doll's bedroom which an old gentleman had built in the jug.

A charming old lady, Miss Clara E. Neal, who is totally blind, was knitting a baby sack of soft white wool. Miss Neal knits complete outfits of wool for baby dolls, which are sent to the Shut-in Society for distribution. Miss Neal, who has been blind since birth, is a reader of Braille and was educated at the School for the Blind, Twentieth and Race Streets, Philadelphia, which is now located at Overbrook. Her roommate is Miss Cornelia Norton, who has been her close companion for more than forty-six years. Miss Norton is 82 and Miss Neal is 72. They formerly lived in Cynwyd, but upon the loss of their money through unfortunate investments were obliged to seek this refuge. Miss Norton said that she would not mind the responsibility of running a home, if she once had it again.

Garden Party Today

Mrs. Edward Haws, of 106 Dudley Avenue, and Mrs. Arthur W. Burns, of Woodside Avenue, will give a garden party and bridge on the lawn of Mrs. Haws' home this afternoon for the benefit of the building fund of the Woman's Community Club of Narberth. There will be a prize for each table and the tickets are 50 cents each.

A man who decides to put his trust in riches should be careful of the trust in which he puts his riches.

Heflin to Speak at Fairview House

Hon. J. Thomas Heflin, former United States Senator from Alabama, will deliver an address at Fairview House, Fairview Road, Penn Valley, this Saturday at 8 P. M.

Mr. Heflin appears under the auspices of a committee of local citizens who are co-operating with the Good Citizenship League of America of Washington, D. C., and he has chosen for his subject, "America at the Cross Roads."

The fiery Alabamian has just completed a series of three lectures in the State of North Carolina, where he was greeted by huge crowds of people who cheered his remarks continually. His lecture covers some of the vital issues that confront the American people and that must be solved before prosperity and safety can be assured.

Senator Heflin is now engaged in a contest of the election of Mr. Bankhead in Alabama last fall, and claims that the election was so corrupt and fraudulent that there can be little question that the committee of the Senate will recommend that a run-off election be held there, in order to find out who was really elected. Mr. Heflin believes that if such action should be taken by the Senate, he will be re-elected by at least a hundred and fifty thousand plurality.

The general public is cordially invited by the local committee to hear Senator Heflin speak on what he terms "the burning issues of the day" at Fairview House tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Neilson's estate, "Sabine Farm," is located on Youngsford Road at Williamson Avenue. The Gladwyne bus from the Ardmore railroad station goes by the entrance.

Matchless economy with six-cylinder smoothness

"Better than 20 miles to the gallon." "Its cost-per-mile is the lowest of any car." "Never have to add oil between crankcase changes." "Drove from Ohio to California on a repair expense of $1.05." "It just runs and runs and runs."

—typical comments from owners of the Chevrolet Six

Chevrolet's 152" frame supports the body through-out its entire length.

Why is it that Chevrolet—a big, powerful, smooth-running six—actually costs less to operate and maintain than any other car you can buy? The answer lies in five outstanding factors of Chevrolet economy:

1. Efficient Engine Design makes Chevrolet fuel consumption so low that 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline is nothing unusual for a Chevrolet owner.

2. Modern Chassis Design—as evidenced by Chevrolet's long heavy frame, four parallel-mounted springs, and smooth-running six-cylinder engine—increases the ability of the Chevrolet Six to run dependably, day after day.

3. Excellence of Manufacture also adds to Chevrolet dependability and long life. Chevrolet pistons, for instance, are built so carefully, and held true to such close limits of precision, that many owners have gone 20,000 miles or more without having their motors opened for major servicing.

4. High-Quality Materials are used throughout the Chevrolet car—costly nickel steel, chrome-vanadium steels, chrome-nickel steels—to assure trouble-free, low-cost service for tens of thousands of miles.

5. Economical Nationwide Service, with its low flat-rate charges on labor and genuine parts, is available at 10,000 dealers throughout the country, who also offer the protection of the most liberal owner's service policy ever to back a low-priced car.

Chevrolet's Owner's Service Policy is the most liberal ever offered in connection with a low-priced car.

Remember—in addition to all these basic economies—Chevrolet offers the extra dollars-and-cents advantage of one of the lowest delivered prices on the market. And this cost may be spread over a period of many months by the liberal G.M.A.C. plan.

A Page of Local Home and Garden Information

By ROBERT J. EDGAR

Kolkwitzia Amabilis has been given the easier name of Beauty Bush by its introducer, the late Ernest H. Wilson. By any name it would be a most beautiful shrub, long, gracefully drooping branches laden with delicate pink bells. It was a real treat to view on June first. It takes several years to flower the shrub from a small plant, but it is well worth waiting for.

When cutting peonies leave at least two leaf branches on the old stem to help ripen eyes for next season.

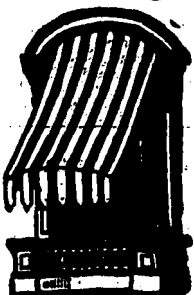

Pyracantha Lalandi is also called the Firethorn. Here is a shrub! It has everything, evergreen, pretty in flower, wonderful in winter with its brilliant fruit, graceful in its irregular form and thorny enough to keep out any animal. It is fussy in one characteristic and that is in moving it. Get pot plants and do not try to transplant large field plants. The variety coccinea is almost as showy. The pyracanthas are sometimes listed as crataegus as they are closely related to the hawthornes.

Cut roses with long stems and thereby prune the bush at the same time. And cut your rose stems to a five leaflet leaf; never to a three leaflet leaf, as new buds are formed at the five leaflet leaf intersection.

Warm, moist weather makes most favorable for aphids of all kinds and colors. Aphids like easy work and attack young, tender shoots or tender buds. Lately they have taken a fancy to beech leaves, particularly copper beeches. A forceful spray from a power sprayer using nicotine and soap is the best control. Aphids do real harm by sucking sap from tender branches and leaves but are comparatively easy to combat.

Birds like a shallow bathing place. About one-eighth to one-quarter of an inch is the right depth. A deeper bird bath that holds a fair amount of water may hold a stone for a bathing beach. Birds are poor swimmers. A tree or shrub should be nearby for the drying off process.

Don't make bird traps for cats by placing bird baths near the ground. If you love the birds keep the bird bath out of reach of cats. Birds are the gardener's friends. Cats in a garden are —.

Starlings and robins are after beetle grubs in the lawn. They only go after live grubs—not poisoned ones. Unfortunately the birds do not get all the grubs. It will still be necessary to spray trees and shrubs to prevent their being defoliated by the adult beetles.

Weather vanes are friendly things—and useful too.

Real Estate

The office of Robert J. Nash has leased the residence of Mrs. Norman Jefferies, on North Narberth Avenue, Narberth, to Mr. Enrique Bustos, Chilean Consul, who will occupy the property during his stay in this country.

Hirst & MacFarland have sold for John H. McClatchy a stone and clapboard residence on one and three-quarters acres of ground on Lafayette Road in the Colonial Village at Wayne.

The residence is known as the "General Washington House" and contains 12 rooms and 3 baths, with an attached 3-car garage. There is also a miniature barn on the property which will accommodate two horses.

The property was purchased by Maurice P. Fikes at $24,750.

Hall, Sparks & Harris have sold for Henry W. Stelwagon a portion of his property facing on Mallwyd Road, Merion, to Mrs. Charles R. Wentz. The purchaser will add this land, which is well wooded and beautifully landscaped, to her present property, situate at the corner of Mallwyd and Woodley Roads.

What is personality?
Is it originality
Or say—individuality—
Or just being reality?

Narberth Drops Two Holiday Contests

the Philadelphia papers, but this writer feels that though Moleskie no doubt pitched one of the finest games ever seen on the Main Line, to credit the Bryn Mawr shortstop and left fielder with errors on the above-mentioned hits would be doing them an injustice. Such being our position, we wish to give Whitey all possible glory for his performance, but in the absence of a league-appointed official scorer we will stick to our story that Narberth got two safe hits.

Bryn Mawr scored a run in their first time at bat when Highfield singled and Faulk walked, and both runners advanced on Weston's sacrifice. At this point Harry King, with one of his quick throws, trapped Highfield between third and home and Harvey Humphries made the mistake of running the fleet Highfield toward the plate. Kent covered home and took Hump's throw, but Highfield deftly dodged the Narberth pitcher and crossed the plate. In the fourth inning Narberth presented the visitors with a similar run. Weston and Terry were standing on second and third and King snapped a throw to second, and Baker, making no attempt to tag Terry, held the ball and watched Weston scamper across the home plate. Apparently the Narberth infield is not mentally alert enough to take advantage of Catcher King's accurate throwing.

Bryn Mawr's other two tallies were made in a more orthodox manner on Faulk's double and Weston's single in the fifth and on a pair of triples by Doyle and Wronski in the eighth.

The fielding feature of the game, however, can be credited to Narberth. This was a sensational running catch by Pete Richards of a long drive from the bat of Terry, which robbed the visiting first baseman of a sure home run and gained Pete a considerable ovation from the fans.

The afternoon game can be disposed of in a few words. The Oakmont boys, who are handled by Wyc Justice, Main Line sports scribe, accumulated seven runs in the first five innings, hitting Bill Reynolds hard and also getting considerable aid from four errors by Herb Baker, who probably played the worst game in his Main Line career. In the sixth Jim McKee replaced Reynolds, but he was no mystery to the Oakmont boys, who hit him for three runs in the three innings he worked. Meanwhile the Narberth batters were getting an occasional run off Al Herman, the youthful Oakmont flinger, but they were never able to get enough to assume the lead. The local boys showed a flash of life in the eighth when Martin and Harris socked home runs and McKee singles, but the inning ended dismally when Herb Baker watched a third strike float over the plate.

Altogether the above recital of events is most depressing and to add to Gene Davis' troubles he lost the services of three of his outfielders for an indefinite period through injuries. Harry Francis and Pete Richards both injured their legs sliding to bases and Vernon Fleck stopped one of Hermann's fast ones with his elbow, inflicting a painful bone bruise. Vernon continued to play throughout the game, but your correspondent learned Sunday that the veteran left fielder, on his doctor's orders, will have to remain out of the game at least a week.

Juniors Down Tioga A. C., 4-1, on Tuesday

Fred Walzer's Narberth Juniors easily defeated the Tioga A. C., 4-1, in a well-played game at the Narberth Playground last Tuesday night.

The genial Magistrate's youthful charges showed great improvement in all departments of the game. They hammered the offerings of Dudrear for ten solid hits, with Jerry Casey and Howard Hager leading the attack, the former with three clean singles and the latter a pair of crashing doubles.

In addition to his batting feats, Casey pitched a splendid game, holding the visitors to five hits and retiring ten of them by the strikeout route. The snappy all-around play of Dick Heckel, Howdy Powell and George Humphries also materially assisted the Juniors in their victory.

No More Fooling

Gasoline service stations here and elsewhere in Pennsylvania are required by a new Act of Assembly, effective June 1, to display the amount of the State tax in letters no smaller than those announcing the sales price of gasoline, and in no case in letters smaller than two inches in height. Hereafter when motorists in this State purchase gas at a station whose road signs proclaim the price in large letters, they will be able to tell at a glance that the price is as stated, and not subject to a higher cost modestly announced in small letters elsewhere on the sign.

Predicting the Weather Is a Function of Charles Decker

may cause the pointer to jump across the face of the dial and just as quickly subside. The highest velocity which has been recorded since the installation of this instrument is 55 miles per hour, Mr. Decker said.

Also on the lawn is the rain and snow gauge by which the amount of rainfall can be determined in inches and fractions of an inch, and the water content in snow.

Among the equipment of the station which is kept in the house is a Sling Psychrometer for ascertaining the humidity and the dew point; a standard mercurial barometer which can be read to a thousandth of an inch; a Barograph, a self-recording barometer which traces fluctuations of air pressure on a chart from hour to hour; a Thermograph, a self-recording thermometer, which makes a continuous trace on a chart of the changes of temperature.

Mr. Decker receives numerous inquiries about the probable state of the weather. Everyone, of course, is interested in whether it will be fair so that they can do so-and-so. He recalled one occasion a couple of years ago when a woman in a nearby section called him up, saying she had planned a fete for that week-end and wanted to know what the prospects were for good weather. Whereupon Mr. Decker consulted his instruments and looked at the daily records, which led him to believe the skies would be sunny and the day propitious. But along came the appointed day and in the middle of the afternoon a thunder and rain storm blew up which made a fete out of the question. "I never had any more inquiries from that woman," said Mr. Decker, laughing, "and no doubt she thinks I'm a fake."

Mr. Decker's official title is a "cooperative weather observer," which means that he receives no compensation for the work. He once asked Bliss Perry, of the Philadelphia Weather Bureau, why they did not have paid men do that sort of work. "Because," was the reply, "we find that people who do it as a hobby are really more interested in it and will probably do a better job than someone who has to be paid to do the work." Which sounds like a good argument for the amateur in any field.

In addition to his work as a weather observer, Mr. Decker is interested in observing the stars and has a mounted telescope in his house. Conditions here are not very favorable for such work, he has found, since so many nights are cloudy.

Last month Mr. Decker served as a member of the official reception committee for the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress of Liverpool on the invitation of Mayor Walker, of New York. The Lady Mayoress is Mr. Decker's sister.

Mr. Decker is a member of the American Meteorological Society and of the Pacific Astronomical Society.

He will sail the latter part of June for England, where he will spend July and August.

Friends in Foreign Lands Gained by Radio Club

is mutual with amateurs in any country and being in constant communication over the air many close friendships are built up. When Speakman went to St. Louis last winter, for example, to exhibit the Automatic Race Timer which he invented, at the radio show there, he met one of his radio friends with whom his contact previously had been entirely over the air. At his home Speakman has "Call Cards" from friends in all parts of the world.

Sending and relaying messages comprises one of the principal occupations of amateur radio operators. The Lower Merion Club is a member of the American Radio Relay League which handles as many as 20,000 messages a month. These are of all kinds from friendly greetings to messages of more import. "We don't send any Christmas greetings but nearly any other kind of a message we readily transmit," Speakman said. "On one occasion I sent a message to Los Angeles which was received there in ten minutes. At another time I transmitted a message from Florida to Norristown." The nice part about sending messages via radio amateurs is that there is no charge, since they cannot receive remuneration for their services. "If this service were more widely known we would probably be swamped with messages to relay," Speakman said, "but people don't seem to realize the possibilities of amateur communication by radio."

"All amateurs," Speakman explained, "use short wave lengths and operate on about 50 watts power. These waves are reflected from the upper atmosphere in what are called 'skip distances.' That makes it possible for us to communicate with Australia, for instance, while an intermediate point, like St. Louis, could not pick the message."

"We know all the amateurs by their call letters," he continued, "and recognize their call by the sound of the code and the rhythm which differs slightly for each operator."

Experiments constitute another field of activity of the Lower Merion Radio Club. Speakman is particularly interested in short wave experiments and long-distance communication. Roberts handles most of the club's messages, and is an official relay station. Timm and Auberger are experimenting with television and have received pictures over the air.

Speakman has been in communication with five continents and has been heard in six. He has communicated with amateurs in thirty countries and has been in touch with the Graf Zeppelin and heard weather reports across the entire country.

All the members of the Club are licensed operators and have built all their own apparatus.

Newtown Square. Defeated in First Twilight Game

After two weeks of silence, Narberth bats spoke out forcibly Wednesday night as Gene Davis' boys overwhelmed Newtown Square, 13-3, in the first twilight game of the season.

The Narberth boys hammered the offerings of Pitcher Danby for fourteen hits, Baker leading the attack with three safe blows, while King, McKee and Gilfillan had two each. Both Armstrong and McKee pitched creditably, keeping the visitors' nine hits well scattered.

R. Orklip's long home run drive in the second inning and the fielding of Casey were the features of the game for the visitors.

Score by Innings—

Narberth ..... 0 0 0 1 4 0 8 x—13
Newtown Square 1 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 —3

June the Month to Prepare Children to Enter School

The question is frequently asked whether or not the Child Health Center at Narberth is open during the summer. The answer is that it has been open once a week for the past year and four months and will continue its weekly conferences indefinitely.

The public health nurses from the Community Health and Civic Association will conduct a campaign during the month of June in the interest of the pre-school child. Parents who have children to enter school this fall will be urged to take them to their private physician or to the nearest Child Health Center for a physical examination. The importance of having this examination made as soon as possible, so that correction of defects may be started immediately, is emphasized at the centers.

That every child should be immunized against diphtheria and vaccinated for smallpox should be generally appreciated by the parents. The aim of the campaign at the Narberth Center as elsewhere will be "Fitness for Every Child to Enter School."
